A) Prior formalities to complete for participating in the Shareholders’ Meeting

The Shareholders’ meeting is composed of all shareholders, regardless the number of shares held. All shareholders may decide to be represented at the Shareholders meeting by another shareholder, by their spouse or civil partner. He can also be represented by any other person or entity of their choice (Article L.225 -106 of the Commercial Code). In accordance with Article R.225 -85 of the Commercial Code, it is justified for a shareholder to participate to the general shareholder meeting if he can provide proof of his account registration (pursuant to the seventh paragraph of Article L.228 -1 of the Commercial Code) no later than the second day preceding the meeting at midnight, Paris time. This registration account can be in his name or in the name of the intermediary acting on his behalf in their securities account either in the registered share accounts kept by the company (or its agent), or in the accounts of bearer shares held by the authorized intermediary. This accounting registration of shares in the books of accounts of bearer shares held by financial intermediaries is evidenced by the issuance of a certificate of participation (or where appropriate by electronic means ) in accordance with Article R.225 -85 Commercial Code (with reference to Article R.225- 61 of the Code), in its appendix:
- Voting form
- Proxy vote
- Demand for an admission card, established on behalf of the shareholder or on behalf of the shareholder represented by the registered intermediary.
A certificate is also issued to shareholders wishing to attend the meeting and who has not received an admission card in due time, before the second day preceding the meeting at midnight, Paris time.

B) Different ways to participate in the Shareholders’ meeting

Shareholders who may wish to attend the Shareholders meeting could ask for an admission card as followed:
